

Windows Live Mail (Windows)

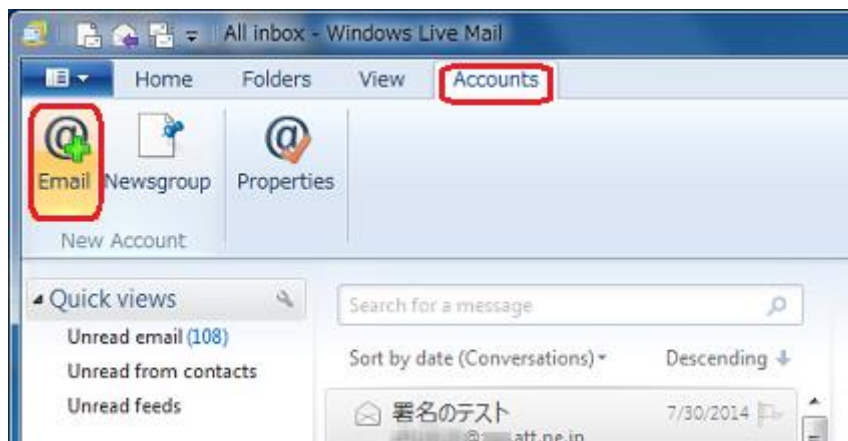

Prepare the following pieces of information in advance.

These were displayed on screen when you subscribed. You will also find those on the Access Information Sheet that was sent to you.

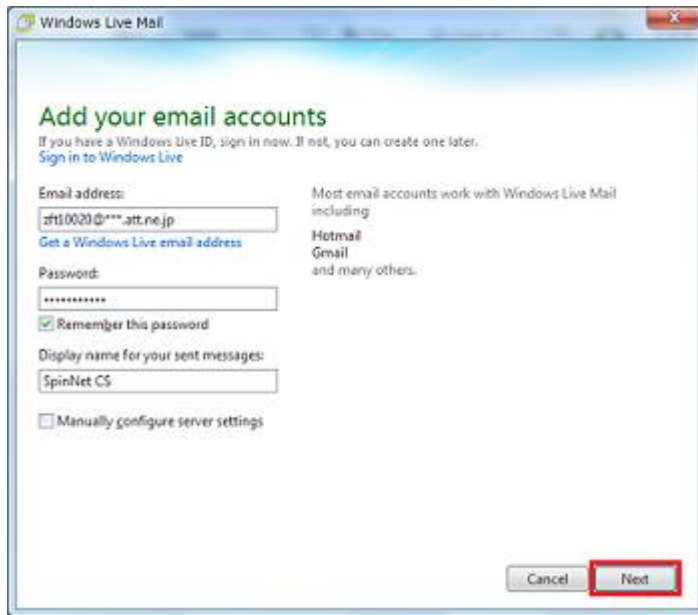

In the following description which are shown in green, please replace it with your own details.

Name	Value
Mail password
Mail server (SMTP/POP)	e.g. ..ne.jp
Mail address	e.g. @.att.ne.jp

Step1. Launch “Windows Live Mail”, and click the “Accounts” tab and click “Email”.

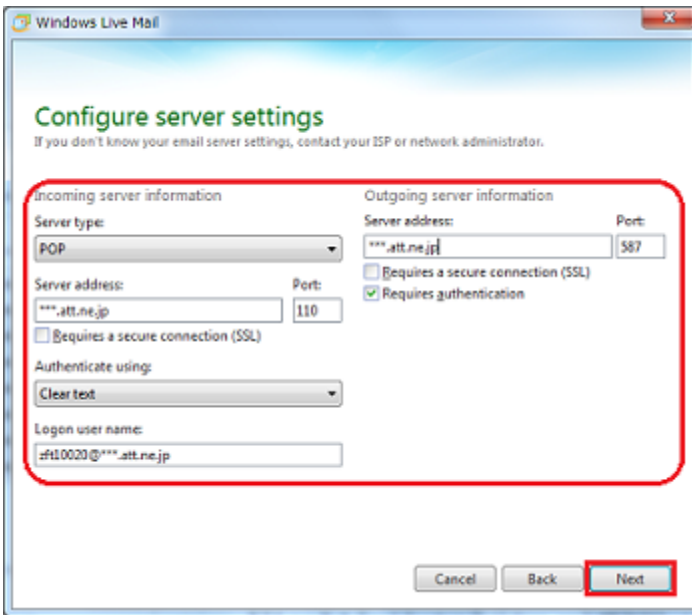

Step2. .Enter the following then click “Next”.

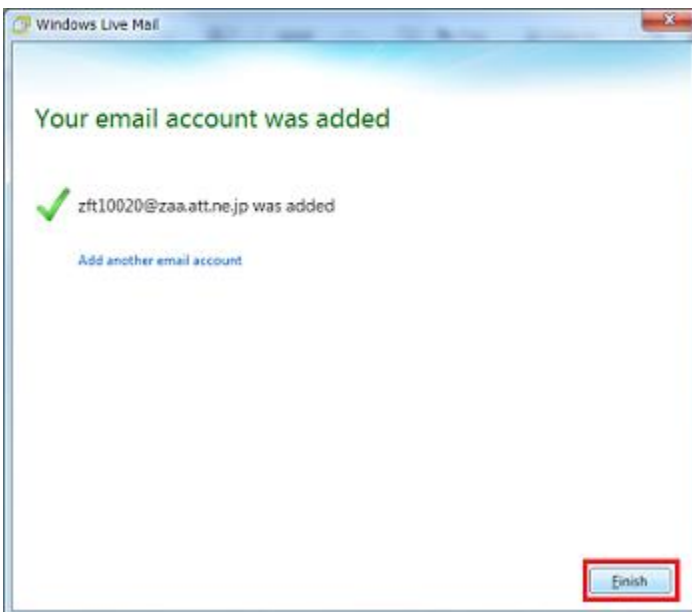

Name	Value
Email Address	Your mail address
Password	Your mail password
Display Name	Your first and last name

Step3. .Enter the following then click “Next”.

	Name	Value
Incoming server information	Server type	Select “POP”
	Server address	Your mail server
	Port	110
	Log on using	Clear text authentication
	Log on user Name	Your mail address
Outgoing server information	Server address	Your mail server
	Port	587
	Requires authentication	Checked

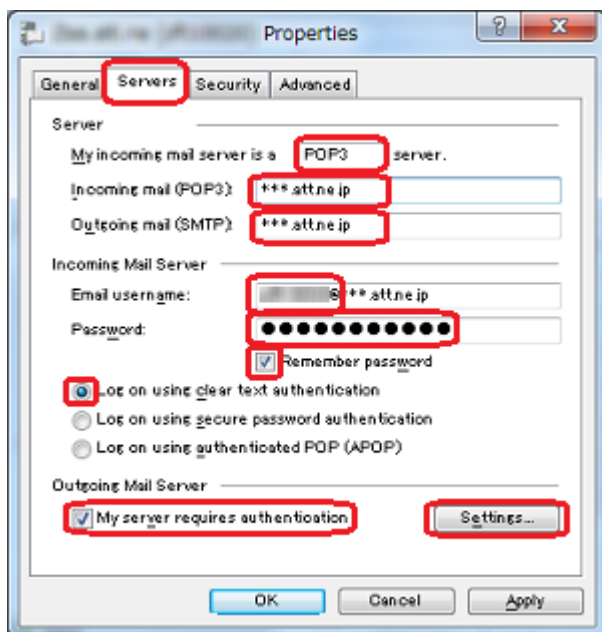

Step4. .Click “Finish”.

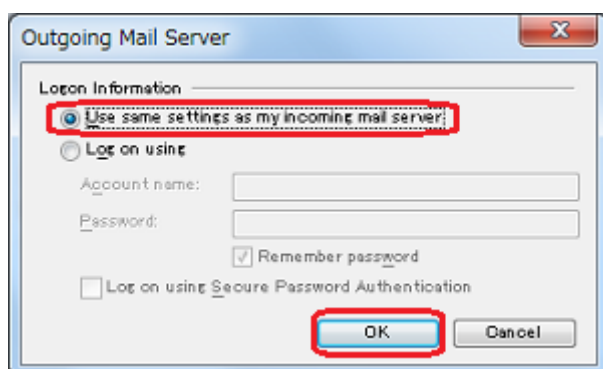

Step5. Launch “Windows Live Mail”, click the “Accounts” tab, then select the account that you wish to confirm.

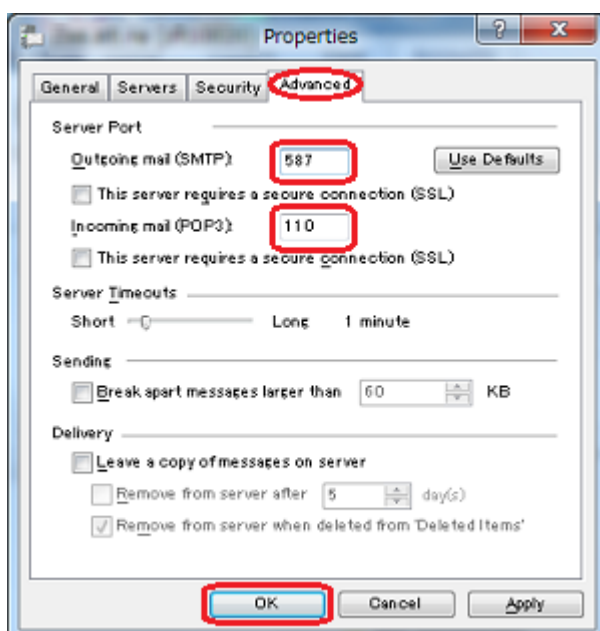

Step6. Click the “Servers” tab and confirm the following, then click “Settings”.

Step7. Check “Use same settings as my incoming mail server” then click “OK”.

Step8. Click the “Advanced” tab, then change Outgoing mail (SMTP) to “587” in Server Port and click “OK”.

This concludes the settings.

If you would like to use your e-mail under stronger security, please use encrypted communication. You need to set your e-mail software. Please refer to POP/SMTP over SSL manual for more detail.